3.14 SUMMARY OF RCW 26.09.430 - .480, REGARDING RELOCATION OF A CHILD.

This is a summary only. For the full text, please see RCW 26.09.430 through 26.09.480.

If the person with whom the child resides a majority of the time plans to move, that person shall give notice to every person entitled to court ordered time with the child.

If the move is outside the child's school district, the relocating person must give notice by personal service or by mail requiring a return receipt. This notice must be at least 60 days before the intended move. If the relocating person could not have known about the move in time to give 60 days' notice, that person must give notice within 5 days after learning of the move. The notice must contain the information required in RCW 26.09.440. See also form DRPSCU 07.0500, (Notice of Intended Relocation of A Child.)

If the move is within the same school district, the relocating person must provide actual notice by any

2 reasonable means. A person entitled to time with the child may not
3 object to the move but may ask for modification under RCW
4 26.09.260.

6 Notice may be delayed for 21 days if the relocating person is entering 7 a domestic violence shelter or is moving to avoid a clear, immediate
8 and unreasonable risk to health and safety.

10 If information is protected under a court order or the address
11 confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.

12 A relocating person may ask the court to waive any notice
13 requirements that may put the health and safety of a person or a child
14 at risk.

16 Failure to give the required notice may be grounds for sanctions, 17 including contempt.

18 If no objection is filed within 30 days after service of the notice of 19 intended relocation, the relocation will be permitted and the proposed 20 revised residential schedule may be confirmed.

22 A person entitled to time with a child under a court order can file an
23 objection to the child's relocation whether or not he or she received 24 proper notice.

26 An objection may be filed by using the mandatory pattern form WPF 27 DRPSCU 07.0700, (Objection to Relocation/Petition for Modification of 28 Custody Decree/Parenting Plan/Residential Schedule). The objection
29 must be served on all persons entitled to time with the child.

32 The relocating person shall not move the child during the time for 33 objection unless: (a) the delayed notice provisions apply; or (b) a court
34 order allows the move.

36 If the objecting person schedules a hearing for a date within 15 days
37 of timely service of the objection, the relocating person shall not move 38 the child before the hearing unless there is a clear, immediate and 39 unreasonable risk to the health or safety of a person or a child.

42 IV. DECISION MAKING

44 4.1 DAY TO DAY DECISIONS.

46 Each parent shall make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and 47 control of each child while the child is residing with that parent.
48 Regardless of the allocation of decision making in this parenting plan, either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child.

- Religious upbringing: father

4.3 RESTRICTIONS IN DECISION MAKING.

Sole decision making shall be ordered to the father for the following reasons:

One parent is opposed to mutual decision making, and such opposition is reasonably based on the following criteria:

- (a) The existence of a limitation under RCW 26.09.191;
- (b) The history of participation of each parent in decision making in each of the areas in RCW 26.09.184(4)(a);
- (c) Whether the parents have demonstrated ability and desire to cooperate with one another in decision making in each of the areas in RCW 26.09.184(4)(a); and
- (d) The parents' geographic proximity to one another, to the extent that it affects their ability to make timely mutual decisions.

V. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The purpose of this dispute resolution process is to resolve disagreements about carrying out this parenting plan. This dispute resolution process may, and under some local court rules or the provisions of this plan must, be used before filing a petition to modify the plan or a motion for contempt for failing to follow the plan.

No dispute resolution process, except court action is ordered.

2 VI. OTHER PROVISIONS

4 There are the following other provisions:

8 6.1 PARENTAL CONSENT: Except as otherwise agreed in writing by 10 the parties or authorized by court order, with notice and opportunity 12 for the other parent to be heard, neither parent shall sign any necessary consents allowing the child(ren) to: a) marry, or b) enter into any type of military service.

14 6.2 RECORD ACCESS: Each party shall have equal and independent
16 authority to confer with school, daycare, health or other program
18 personnel regarding the child(ren)'s progress, and each parent shall 20 have full and equal access to the education and health care records of the child(ren) absent a court order to the contrary. Neither parent may veto or deny the access requested by the other parent.

22 Both parents shall have equal access to educational records of public
24 and private schools in all grades kindergarten through twelve and any
26 form of alternative school for all periods for which child support is paid 28 or the child(ren) is/are dependent in fact on the parent requesting access to the records. Educational records of post-secondary educational institutions are hereby limited to any enrollment and academic records reasonably necessary to determine, establish or continue support.

30 6.3 INFORMATION: Each parent shall be responsible for providing
32 the other with reasonable advance information and documentation
34 regarding upcoming school, athletic, and social events involving the 36 child(ren). Each parent may attend such events. Each parent shall continuously provide to the other parent the current names/addresses/telephone numbers of the child(ren)'s health care providers, daycare providers, counselors, therapists, and teachers/schools.

38 Each parent shall, upon receipt, provide to the other parent 40 information and documentation concerning the child(ren)'s well-being,
42 including without limitation; copies of report cards, school meeting

Each parent further agrees to discourage other persons from uttering words or engaging in conduct which would have a tendency to estrange the child(ren) from the other parent, to damage the opinion of the child(ren) as to the other parent, or which would impair the natural development of the child(ren)'s love and respect for the other parent.

6.6 COMMITMENT: Both parents freely and wholly commit themselves to this parenting plan with the expectation that it will provide a stable and lasting residential schedule for the child(ren) and the parents. Each parent is aware that violations of this parenting plan, abusive use of conflict, false reports to authorities or the bad-faith use of dispute resolution (including court action) could lead to a reduction of that parent's residential time with the child(ren).

6.7 DECISION: Neither parent shall ask the child(ren) to make decisions or requests involving the residential schedule. Neither parent shall discuss the residential schedule with the child(ren) except for plans which have already been agreed to by both parents. Neither parent shall encourage the child(ren) to believe it is their choice to determine the residential time spent with the other parent. Such decisions shall be made by the parents or, if they cannot agree, the courts.
